Student Disciplinary Executive Procedures

Introduction

The Islamic Revolution, which came to fruition with the blessings of the holy soul of the Imam (may Allah have mercy on him) and the pure blood of the noble martyrs, is the result of transformation.

It was a cultural awakening and a sense of responsibility among the members of society, especially the youth and students. Inspired by the spirituality and enlightenment arising from the thought of the peaceful revolution that is evident in the thoughts and words of the Imam (may Allah have mercy on him), the youth transformed the cultural, political and social structure of the country.

They opened a new era in the history of human culture .

Universities are considered to be one of the most effective pillars in the revolutionary movement and the enlightenment of people's thoughts, and the importance of the role of students is emphasized.

The title of the young generation elite is indispensable in the various stages of the victory of the revolution, the stabilization of the system, and the defense of the nation. Therefore, the issues

These councils are considered inviolable . Observing piety in matters of judgment and decision-making is one of the fundamental principles and

Superficially dealing with student violations and issuing sentences without considering its consequent effects on the student's family and social relationships and its educational and cultural impact on different individuals or other students, has no positive outcome in achieving a society with fewer violations.

Therefore, it is necessary that when issuing disciplinary sentences, the consequences of the execution of the sentences are also taken into account and in a way that

Decisions and actions should be taken to minimize the negative effects of collisions. Adopting educational and reminder methods in addition to issuing Appropriate and effective sentences require a certain delicacy, in which regard, issuing suspended sentences plays an important role in achieving the Committee's educational goals.

Disciplinary measures will be taken .

Avoiding the instrumental use of disciplinary committees in responding to student protests and dissatisfaction is also emphasized. Creating and responding to their questions requires trust, through resolving student issues and responding to problems while maintaining an atmosphere of intimacy, understanding, and and dialogue. As a result, avoiding accountability to students and resorting to mere disciplinary action, being generous and accepting the space for criticism

. And it will reduce student trust in this valuable institution, leading to harmful consequences.
